

Boston Volunteer Fire Department hosts safety event

Members of the community came out to the Boston Volunteer Fire Department on Jan. 18 for a fire safety event to teach the public on ways they can prepare for and prevent fires and other safety hazards. Photos by Mary Kate Wirfel.

New York State Trooper Sergeant Thomas Owczarzak gives a presentation about winter driving tips.

Levi and Lucy Seivert show off their junior firefighter hats.

Joanne Bonsack from the Boston Democratic Social Club hands out free reflective gear for people and pets to raise awareness about walking along the road safely.